TELEPHONE NO. 124.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.
GEO. D. MITCHELL, — EDITOR.

SENATOR (?) DEBOE can now spend the remainder of his days in figuring out "who done it."

PIERCEPORT MORGAN is said to be the leading spirit in a $50,000,000 electrical deal in England.

Gov. LESLIE M. SHAW, of Iowa, pardoned 473 prisoners within two years, breaking the record.

MCCREARY and Blackburn in the Senate. Seems like old Kentucky is coming back to her own again.

EX CORN King Phillips' former victims did a plenty to him when they met him coming thro' the rye.

A CINCINNATI man has 'invented' a new drink by mixing beer and champagne. Why risk spoiling the beer?

ONE of the saddest features that is to mark the close of this Congress will be the stopping of Deboe's "per diem per day."

PRINCE HENRY of Germany will spend about two weeks in America, and will be entertained at Washington and in New York.

A REGULAR army soldier at Fort Canby was sentenced to ten years imprisonment for threatening to assassinate President Roosevelt.

The officers of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition practically conceded at the White House that the great fair will not be held before 1904.

THEIR twin sisters are to join "Bob" and "Alf" Taylor on the public entertainment platform. If that means "four of a kind," it will be a hard hand to beat.

THERE are twelve teachers, nine doctors and four editors in the Kentucky legislature. Lawyers and farmers predominate in the makeup of the General Assembly.

IT doesn't matter materially how many bills are presented to the Legislature, it is those drawn by the Legislature on the State Treasury that make the real trouble.

THE hair pin is still a weapon of defense and offense. A Texas woman stabbed a would-be masquerader with such an implement recently, but the real tragedy was shown when the local paper referred to the affair as a serious hair pinning.

WONDER if any of those dear, good women of the U. D. C. who spoke in condemnation of the play, ever saw "Uncle Tom's Cabin" with two Topsyes, two Lawyer Markses, playful bloodhounds and Little Eva ascending the golden stairs?

IT will be of great interest to the outside paragraphs, who are in the habit of picturing Kentucky as a land where everybody drinks ardent spirits, to learn that the mistress of the Governor's house at Frankfort bars the punch bowl at all social affairs.

A CHICAGO policeman poured alcohol on a sleeping man's foot and then applied a match a few days ago. The said policeman claimed he wanted to wake up his victim. The result is not recorded, but it is extremely probable that in his immediate plans he was quite successful.

By the death of McKinley and the accession of Roosevelt the noses of two members of the former's Kitchen Cabinet were knocked out of joint—those of Mark Hanna, platoon leader of Cleveland, and of Editor Kohlhaas, of the Chicago Record-Herald. The latter has wisely followed his nose out of practical politics, and the former, if he is wise, will go and do likewise. It is with both a case of fisticuff—"take it off before I knock it off."

No sooner is it announced by President Roosevelt that the negro will be invited to receptions at the White House than Mrs. Roosevelt issues a statement that hereafter the temperature of the Executive Mansion will be kept so much lower that ladies in evening dress must wear capes to protect their arms and shoulders. President Roosevelt and his better half are evidently not in full accord on the new odor of things.—Glasgow Times.

DEMOCRATS hold in the Kentucky Legislature 99 out of 138 seats and not one of them is contested. Verily, Gov. Goebel's prophecy that his assassination would prove to be to the Republican party in Kentucky what the blowing up of the Maine was to Spain has been fulfilled. At the election last fall the Kentucky Democrats carried six of the seven Appellate Court, ten of the eleven Congressional, two of the three Railroad Commissioners and nearly three-fourths of the Senatorial and Representative districts of the State. And to-day all the members of that big Democratic majority are standing together, as stood Jackson's men at the first Manassas—"like a stone wall!"—Louisville Times.

STATE NEWS.

John H. Scott, an aged bigamist, was sentenced at Bowling Green to six years and six months in prison.

J. B. Matthews, who was Assistant Secretary of State under Caleb Powers, was elected a policeman at Somerset.

Ben Blevins shot and killed Ed Williams, Jr., near Dingess, Morgan county. The cause of the difficulty is not known.

The Morehead Normal College has established a broom factory in connection, giving poor pupils an opportunity to work their way through college.

They are boring for oil on a farm near Georgetown. The first thing of consequence struck was something that looked like buttermilk. As the place is used as a dairy farm this is not surprising.

The annual meeting of the Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men will be held in Owensboro the second Tuesday in May, remaining in session for three days.

The report that the Rev. Father Paul J. Volk, of Owensboro, had been murdered by revolutionists in Columbia was erroneous. Mother Augustine, the mother superior at St. Joseph's Academy, of Daviess county, has had three letters from him this week.

Miss Lena Williams, who lives 2½ miles from Campton, has found a silver mine on her farm. She has had the ore analyzed, and it has proved to be genuine. She found a cave, with a barrel of tools, and also unearthed a tin box containing $1,500.

John L. Skull, a prominent farmer, living about three miles from Campton, was run over by two tram cars with which he has been hauling railroad ties and his leg was broken in two places below the knee. The limb may have to be amputated.

A great many horses and mules are dying in Warren county from blind staggers. The veterinarians are kept busy and say that fifty or more have died within the last few days, and that the disease is growing worse.

Dr. A. Wilkes Smith, one of Richmond's most prominent citizens and Kentucky District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the B. P. O. Elks, is reported seriously ill with heart trouble. Dr. W. C. Roberts, of Louisville, has been summoned.

MAMIE—Is the title of an end song to be sung by Charley Webber at the Elks' Minstrels Friday night.

STOCK AND CROP.

Woodford county farmers say the wheat crop is in a worse condition than it has been for many years at this season.

Wigglesworth Bros., of Fayette, raised on their farm of 275 acres, on the Russell pike, 400,000 pounds of hemp which they sold for $20,000. Last year their crop brought $18,000.

"The coming wheat crop, if it comes," said a well known farmer, "is making little progress and seems to be lying dormant. A good snow is badly needed to protect the crop freezing."

Mr. Geo. A. Hill has purchased a well improved farm near Shelbyville, and will move March 1st, when he will give possession of his farm sold to Walter Clark.

Auctioneer Forsyth reports at sale of Geo. A. Hill a large crowd and good prices obtained. Horses, $25 to $150; jacks, $200 to $375; cows, $12 to $46; sheep, $4.90; sows, $19 to $22; shoats, $2.50; mules, $73.50 to $101; chickens, 28c; farm implements, low; household furniture, good prices.

HEAR—Charlie Clark sing "Every Nigger Had a Raglan On," at the Elks' Minstrels, Friday night.

New Pullmans for Big Four.

The Big Four has just received from the Pullman shops two strictly new private compartment sleeping cars, the Carolina and Arkansas, which will be operated between Cincinnati and Chicago on train leaving Cincinnati at 8:30 p. m. daily.

The Big Four trains leave from Central Station, Cincinnati, where direct connection is made with all trains from Kentucky, the South and Southwest, avoiding omnibus transfers. The entrance into Chicago is through Pullman III., and along the shores of Lake Michigan.

The new cars differ from the general run of sleepers of this class in that all of the compartments are on one side of the car and each room can be made strictly private, or two or more rooms can be opened into each other, en suite. This feature makes the cars very desirable for parties desiring more than one compartment.

The rooms are all handsomely furnished in Birds-eye Maple, Oak, Mahogany Birch and Cherry. Each room contains a full length mirror, washstand, hot and cold water, curling iron heater and complete toilet accessories. These cars are the finest that have ever been built by the Pullman Company and represents a large outlay in money.

It's Ir.—Charley Flag will sing "Every Race Has a Flag But a Coon," with scenic effects.

Chas. Replogle, of Atwater, O., was unable to work on account of kidney trouble. After using Foley's Kidney Cure four days he was cured.—Clark & Kenney.

A PLEASING FEATURE—Will be the singing of the Elks' Octette, at the Opera House, Friday night.

You Do, or You Don't Need Glasses

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the selection of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be resorted to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combated. Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used. A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be persisted in.

Our Dr. C. H. BOWEN having just returned from taking a special course in Optics from one of the best specialists in New York, is prepared to do the best of work, having the latest improved methods of fitting. Examinations free. Next visit Wednesday, Jan. 29, 1902.

The gossip never makes a long story short enough to leave out the scandal.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Greens August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at W. T. Brooks'.
